The Limited Junior Agility Showmanship Competition California Junior Handlers' of the Year

The California Junior Handlers' of the Year competition will be held at our Sunday Agility Trial March 11, 2007. Juniors may compete for the Scholarship award program only, not for legs toward future titles. They will compete in the class in which they earned their title. Scoring: Standard, JWW and FAST will be counted with a combined score. The Junior Scholarship program will be three separate scholarships - one for Novice (A & B combined), one for Open, and one for Excellent (A & B combined). A Junior who might have more than one dog qualify, must pick only one class to run in for the Junior Handler of the Year competition. In the event that the Junior has another dog they wish to enter in the AKC trial on Sunday, they are allowed to do so if the second dog is running in a different class from the Junior Handler competition. Clean run time will be based on the percentage of Standard Course Time used, not the actual time of the dog. Faults will be scored 15 points for refusals, off courses and table faults. F's, or failure to perform will be charged 20 points per F. Over time faults will be charged 1 point for novice, 2 points for open and 3 points for excellent.

The Junior does not pay for the Junior Competition entry. They will be allowed to enter the regular agility trial on Saturday if they want, but are not allowed to compete in the regular AKC trial on Sunday with the dog they are running in the competition. The Junior Competition will be run after the regular agility class before the course is changed.

Limited Junior Agility Showmanship Competition

1. To be eligible to enter and compete, the Junior must be a California resident. Junior must have put an AKC Agility Title on the dog including January 1, 2006 and January 1, 2007. The Junior must have received the Junior Handler Agility Title Certificate from AKC and send a copy of the certificate with entry. Any Junior that has received three legs in excellent B standard or JWW in 2006 is also eligible to compete. They must send in copies of their Junior Handler Certification forms. In all cases, two of the three legs must be received from a California trial. Trials will include Licensed or Member Specialty Club Trials as well as Licensed or Member All-Breed Trials. Titles received from the Preferred Agility classes will not be eligible to compete.
2. A Junior Handler who will be 18 years old or older on the date of the trial may still compete provided he or she was less than 18 years of age on the date of the Standard title certificate earned.
3. Each dog handled in this class must be owned or co-owned by the Junior handler or the by the Junior's father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, grandmother or grandfather (including the corresponding half and step relations) or by a member of the Junior Handler's household and must be eligible to compete in AKC Agility Trials.
